DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/09/08 has been entered.

Noted: The term "configured to" performs a function, which is not a positive limitation but only requires the ability to so perform. It does not constitute a limitation in any patentable sense. In re Hutchison 69 USPQ 138.

Specie I, figure 1 has been elected by Applicant in the response filed on 10/31/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
2. Claims 1-3, 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, lines 6-9, it is unclear. The phrase of "one or more removal ...from the circuit board" is not understood. What does applicant mean of "...for breaking the substrate in a predefined boundary between the key area and the circuit board to permanently detach the key area from the circuit board? Since as recited in line 3 that the key area of the substrate of the circuit board, then the key area is belong in the define area of the cir circuit board, so when the substrate is breaking that meaning the circuit board is breaking too, and when the circuit board is breaking then the circuit board being useless. It is contradiction. Please, clarify the claimed language.

Regarding claim 34, lines 15-16, it is unclear. The phrase of "the tab is removed by breaking the substrate in the specific area" is not understood, since as recited in claim 34, lines 3-14 that describes the structure of the tab, so when the tab being removed and breaking then the tab being useless.

Regarding claim 43, lines 17-18, it is unclear. The phrase of "the key is removed by breaking the substrate in the specific area" is not understood, since as recited in claim 43, lines 13-16 that describes the structure of the key, so when the key being removed and breaking then the tab being useless.

Regarding claim 44, lines 14-15, it is unclear. The phrase of "the key is removed by breaking the substrate in the specific area" is not understood, since as recited in claim 43, lines 13-16 that describes the structure of the key, so when the key being removed and breaking then the tab being useless.

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 2841

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification is silent regarding "a portion of the key area is encapsulated in a hardening material to protect the key area from being easily manipulated." This limitations do not support by the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 34-36, and 39-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Matson et al. (U.S. Patent '112) as in the record.

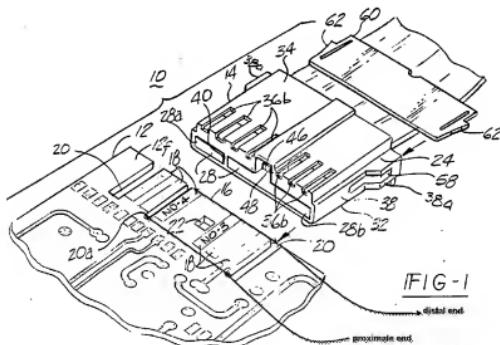

As best understood to claims 1-2, 7, Matson discloses a circuit board (12, column 2, line 7) as shown in figures 1-2 comprising: a substrate which includes a specified area of the substrate that is used as a mechanism (16, column 2, line 9) comprising: signal means for (wire traces 18, and circuitries formed in/on the circuit board 12) conducting a signal between the mechanism (16) and the circuit board (12), the traces being routed on the mechanism; and separation means (gaps 20, column 2, line 15) for facilitating detachment of the mechanism (16) from the circuit board (12) wherein the mechanism (16) is configured to be detached by breaking the substrate at the specified area (the mechanism adapted to be broke then the circuit board being broke then the circuit board cannot be used anymore);

identification means for (labels No.1-No.6, figure 1 shows the label No.3 and No.4) identifying the mechanism (16); wherein the circuit board becomes at least partly non-functional if the mechanism is detached from the circuit board.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 49-53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matson ('112).

As to claims 37-38, Don discloses all of the limitation of the claimed invention, except for the identification comprises a hologram or barcode. However, the barcode or hologram is well known in the art that provide an identification or logo for the product. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a barcode or hologram to modify the labels as taught by Matson for the purpose of verifying or identification product.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 34-39, 41-48 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2, 7, 34-39, and 41-53 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
